Pageant Category Explanations

The DC Royale pageant consists of four (4) judged categories of equal weight: Self- Expression, Talent, Evening Gown/Formal Wear and On Stage Question. Each category will have five (5) judges that have been selected for their expertise and you may receive a maximum of 100 points from each judge for each category. Olympic-style scoring is used in the DC Royale Pageant. That is, the highest score and the lowest score for each category will be thrown out. Only the remaining three (3) scores for that category will be counted for each contestant. Highest possible score: 1,200.

If a tie exists, the scores from the Self-Expression category will be used to break the tie. If a tie still exists, then the scores from Talent category will be used and if a tie still exists, then scores from the Evening Gown/Formal Wear category will be used.

Self-Expression

This category is to show the contestant's creativity and interpretation of the expression chosen by the contestant. The contestant's interpretation can consist of costume, speech, and presentation. All props used for your interpretation must be carried on and off stage by the contestant. Anything that goes out on stage with the contestant must come back with the contestant. Please note that this is not a talent category. The contestant should be prepared to provide a short speech discussing why this particular expression was chosen and why they chose to interpret in this manner. The speech cannot be pre-recorded; the contestant must speak using the live microphone. You may NOT use any fire, liquid or pyrotechnics in presenting your selection.

For this category, the judges may look for the following:

- Does the interpretation have originality?
- Is the interpretation clever?
- Does the contestant deliver the speech well?
- Does the speech explain why this interpretation was chosen?
- Do the props used enhance the interpretation (if used)?
- Is the costume appropriate for the interpretation?
- Is the costume in good condition?
- Is the contestant able to handle the costume?
- Are foundations or pads showing?

2019 Self-Expression Category is: Halloween in July

This category is to show the contestant's ability to take the category to the next level and show their creative side. You are encouraged to do anything of your choosing in reference to the selected Presentation category. The judges will be looking for your creativity, appearance, poise, and ability to present yourself in a professional manner and the style that you have chosen. How is the overall look of your creation? Can the contestant handle their costume or does it overpower them? This is your chance to WOW the judges and the audience alike. You may NOT use any fire, liquid or pyrotechnics in presenting your selection. You are permitted to use props for your selection, but they MUST be brought on the stage, carried during the entire presentation, and removed by you. If you fail to follow this rule, you WILL receive a zero (0) for the category. Remember the judges will look to see, if your pads are showing, are you tucked properly? Etc.

The time limit for this category is two (2) minutes.

Halloween in July is the theme for presentation. Any and all objects and characters are acceptable.

Talent

Contestants will be judged on their quality of lip-sync, live vocals or other entertainment. Judges will be looking to see if the contestant knows the words to their song. If the contestant is lip-syncing, they should look like they are actually singing the song. Is it believable? If it is a live performance, is the talent of good quality? If there is choreography, the dancers should know the steps and the steps should flow. The dancers or actors should not upstage you. Do not attempt to do something that is beyond your talent. The contestant is responsible for their performance. If a member of the contestants' troop does not know his/her part, points will be deducted from the contestants score. Quality of set design and construction, if used, will be judged. Quantity of set is not judged. It is not a requirement to have a set. Do not put something on the stage if it is not going to be used or have any relation to the talent. Contestants are responsible for their set. Points will be deducted if it falls apart or collapses on stage (and is not part of the talent). Costuming and set design should reflect the mood being established. The presentation should be examined for entertainment value. Does it please, cause laughter, sadness or stir some other emotion? Talent presentations are limited to six (6) minutes. A score of zero (0) will be given for any talent going over the time limit.

You are allowed two (2) minutes for setup and two (2) minutes for the take down of your Talent presentation set. Any props used during the Talent presentation or debris must be removed from the stage. If this setup and/or takedown time is not used, it cannot be added to your Talent time allotment.

Each contestant is allowed up to four (4) visible backups for the Talent category. The same four (4) people must be used throughout the presentation. You cannot start the presentation with four people and then during the course of the number replace them with 1-4 different people. Assistants that are hidden during the Talent presentation do not count towards your 4 person limit unless any part of their body is visible during the talent. Once a body part becomes visible, then that person is counted as a visible backup. Your back-up may have access to the dressing room 1 contestant prior to your slot.

Any type of Talent presentation is acceptable with the following exceptions: no Talent presentation will cause harm to, or damage the facility or patrons in any way. No explosive devices, fire in any shape or form, smoke, strobe lighting, or animals (live or dead) can be used at any time.

Any contestant that goes over the allotted time for each category will have their music immediately ended by the Sound Crew and asked to leave the stage. It is the contestant's responsibility to ensure that their presentations are within the specified time limits. Because of the number of contestants competing, no exceptions will be made to these time limits. Failure to abide by the time restrictions or to leave the stage in an acceptable form for the next contestant will result in a score of zero (0) for that category.

For this category, the judges may look for the following:

- Does the talent entertain?
- Does the talent hold the audience's attention?
- Does the talent connect with the audience?
- Is the talent well staged?
- Does the contestant mime (lip-sync) well?
- Does the contestant know their words?

- Was any dancing executed well?
- Is the contestant the primary focus of the talent or did the set, props or backups detract from the contestant?
- Did the costume enhance the talent or detract from the talent?
- Is the costume in good condition?
- Is the contestant able to handle the costume?
- Are foundations or pads showing?

The contestant must turn in their talent choice at the time of application for the pageant and their music must be turned in by the specified deadline. No tipping is allowed during this category. Please see the “Rules and Regulations” for the specific rules governing this category.

**Additional Award Potential****

During the Talent Category, we do a People’s Choice Award / ‘Fan Favorite’. Tip Buckets are passed around throughout the audience during contestants’ performance. After each contestant’s talent is completed, the tips for that contestant are counted individually. At the end of the talent category, the contestant with the most tips wins the “Fan Favorite Award” presented at crowning! So, bring as many people as you can with you to support you as you vi for the crown!
